A creature from space, arrives at Lebanon High School and this is what he finds . . . .

These are a few of the activities that Lebanon High School students enjoy. . . .

"Spacey" finds an age

What an assortment of activities and functions happen throughout a year at L. H. S. We have formal initiations, such as the Future Homemakers of America; there's always the confusion of the daily lunch line. This year the Lebanon Sunshine Society was hostess to the District I Convention. The Latin Club had their annual traditional Roman Banquet. During the year we have many amusing, interesting, and educational convocations, such as the one pictured of the table tennis champions. Without this fervor of activity our school would indeed seem lifeless.

"Spacey" attends a gala occasion—the annual senior dinner party

October 14 marked the date of the first formal Senior event of the year. All the Seniors came to Ulen Country Club in a "Harvest Daze," which was our theme. The beautiful, impressive Candelabrum ceremony very well kept us in our "Harvest Daze." A few special numbers by a quartet of boys, an old favorite reading, a piano reminiscence, and a very clever parody provided the entertainment for the students and faculty guests.

L. to r.: Dick Ford, Alan Kincaid, Mina Edmonds, and Harley Sheets.

CHRISTMAS

Each year our school celebrates the Christmas season two ways, using the idea that Christmas isn't all fun and frolic, but also has its serious side. The Dramatics Classes presented "The Juggler," which told of a poor beggar who became rich in the eyes of the Lord. A festive atmosphere was created by caroling in the halls by various organizations.

This year the Plane and Solid Geometry Classes again gaily decorated the Senior High Christmas tree with their artistic concoctions of plane and solid polyhedrons.

L. to R., kneeling: Dave Wainscott, Raymon Goff, Dick Korteling, Eddy Gullion, John Dicks, Phil Sterling, and Alan Kincaid. Standing: George Morton, Nancy Morton, Richard Roth, Terry Darnell, Jane McDonald, Miss Eileen Beckett, Bill Ten Eyck, and Jon Myers.

It has been suggested that our gym be renamed the "Palace" due to the quality of our dramatic productions. This year the Dramatics Class presented a hilarious comedy entitled "Hillbilly Weddin'." Last spring our Dramatics Classes produced "Submerged" and "Our Miss Brooks."

"Spacey" is entertained by a variety of L. H. S. productions

"Hillbilly Weddin'"

Boys, L to R: Dick Korteling, Charles Butner, Hubert Gardner, Gene White, Jim Whitehead, Kenny Atkinson, Dick Roberts, and Gene Fine.

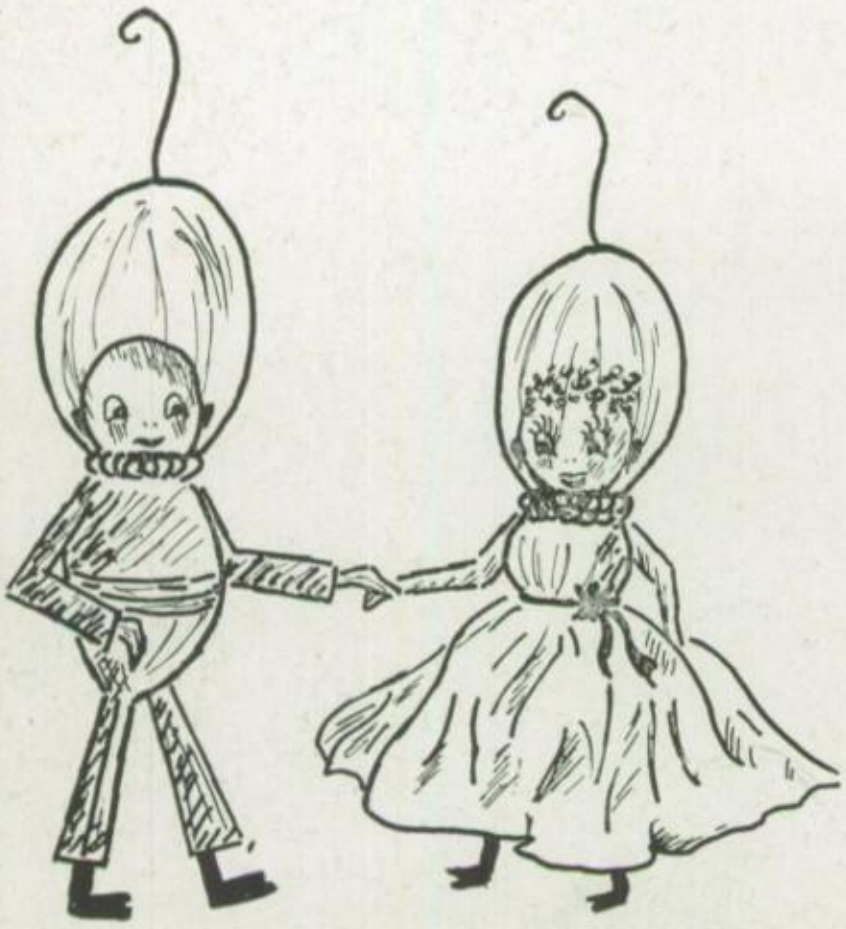
Flower Bearer, Kit Tauer, and Crown Bearer, Kevin Guilford.



Our 1953 Queen, Mina Edmonds, being crowned by the '52 Queen, Barbara Bischoff.

April 17, 1953, the Lebanon Armory was very appropriately transformed into Westminster Abbey for the "Coronation Ball." Queen Mina Edmonds was entertained by dancers and tumblers. She and her guests spent an evening long to be remembered, dancing to the music of the Butler Collegians.

Sir "Spacey" and his "Lady" attend the coronation ball

MAY FEST

The Queen of May and her Royal Court hold sway over our Annual May Fest. Her Majesty and Court are Freshmen girls elected by their own class. It is no secret that every Freshman girl wishes she could be May Queen.

The grand entrance of the Queen is a spectacle of pomp and grace, well worth recalling as a pleasant memory of the colorful pageant.

"Spacey" is spellbound by the May Fest activities

MAY FEST

Each year an extravaganza of color and talent is presented in our gym for the pleasure and entertainment of our townspeople.
The May Fest features dances, games calisthenics, and other skills produced by the Physical Education Classes of our entire Lebanon School System.

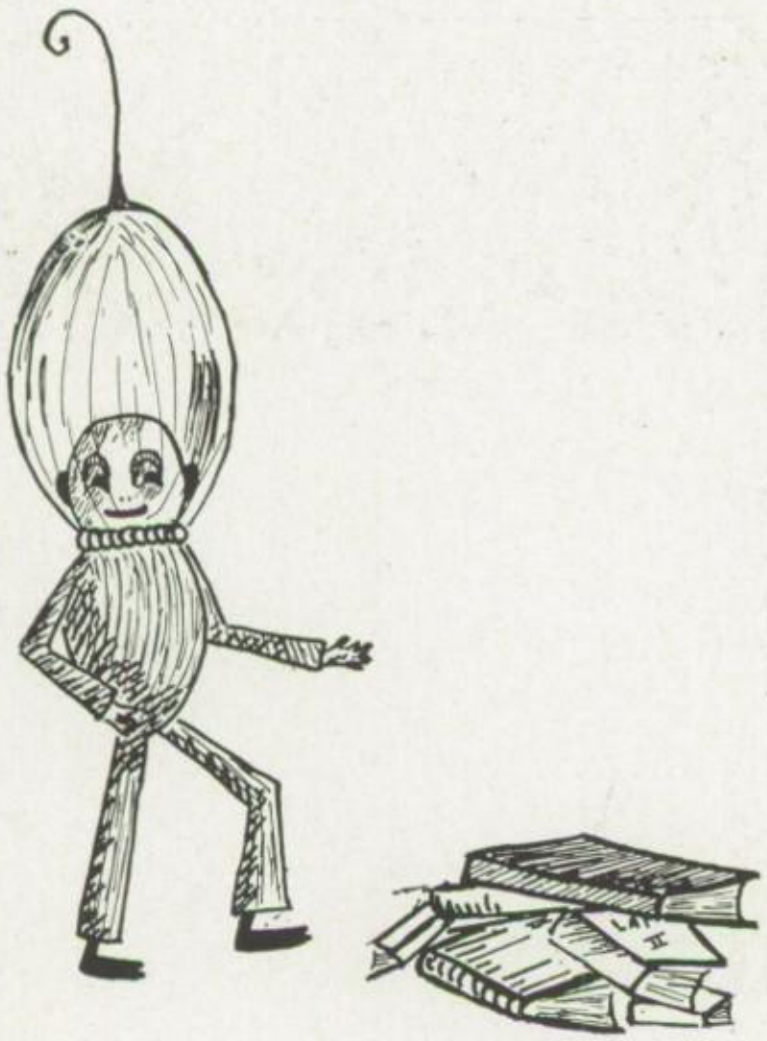
L. to R.: Principal Paul W. Neuman, Assistant Principal Mrs. Drubelle Stephenson, and Superintendent T. L. Christian.

"Spacey" discovers the Pilots of L. H. S.

From Seventh Graders to Seniors, each has something to look for. To the Sevens, perhaps, it's looking ahead to their next five years and wondering, "How will I ever make it all the way?" To the Seniors it is the reminiscence of six full years, trying to decide where they went.

These men and women on the next pages are the pillar stones on which we leaned to help guide us through those years. There is no doubt in our minds that our teachers are the best to be had. They appear to be tireless in their efforts to help us and always have time to stop and give us a boost, even though they're busy. The time they spend outside of school assisting us in extra-curricular activities and functions takes a great deal of their time and patience, but it is given in a friendly, not patronizing, manner so as to make us feel useful.

Our Seventh Graders certainly have a lot to look forward to working shoulder to shoulder with our teachers in educating themselves. The Seniors will always remember the friendliness and helpfulness of our unrelenting and tireless teachers.



Superintendent T. L. Christian, A.B., A.M.

SUPERINTENDENT

Filling one of the most important posts in our school system is our capable superintendent, Mr. Thomas L. Christian.

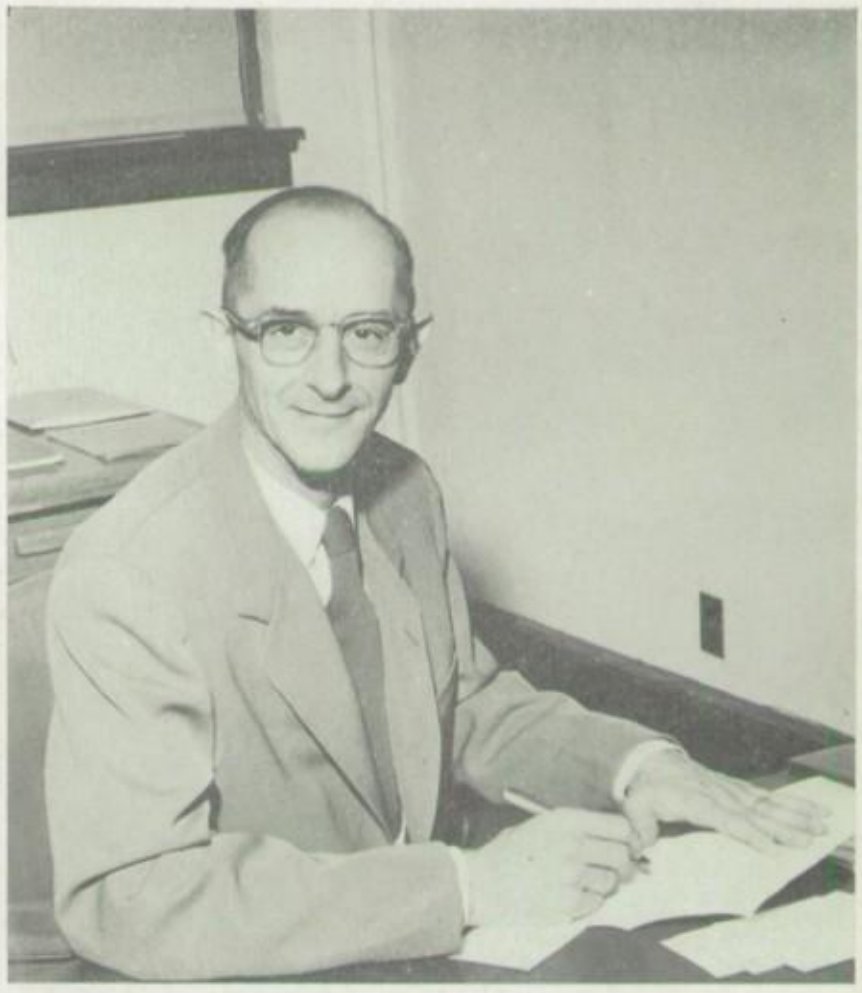
His office, in the Senior High Building, is the mainspring of our Lebanon school system. Among his duties are the recommendations for new teachers, keeping records for the different schools, and handling all new text books.

We take tremendous pride in our schools and the manner in which they are operated. Our thanks to Mr. Christian for his efficient management of this important role.

PRINCIPAL

The name on the desk says, Mr. Paul W. Neuman, but to the students it reads "Butch" Neuman, guiding light in disguise. There is not a busier man in Lebanon, yet he has time to talk to us whenever we feel the necessity. It's his duty to run Lebanon High School as it should be run.

It is through the principal's office that all school schedules and activities are channeled. He and his office staff keep our school functioning on an even keel. Records of each student, from the time he enters, are kept on file here and can be referred to even long after he graduates.



Principal Paul W. Neuman, B.S., M.S.

ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL

There isn't a student in Lebanon High School that doesn't know Mrs. Drubelle Stephenson and that hasn't sometime been rendered a service by her. First of all, she is the person who helps the new Seventh Grader to become accustomed to the new school life into which he is thrown. Mrs. Stephenson conducts all testing and guidance directing for the school system and also assists the Seniors in counseling for their entrance into college.

As assistant principal, her main concern is the running of the Junior High, which she does in her usual capable manner.

At right: Mrs. Stephenson and office assistant Nancy McKinney.

Assistant Principal Mrs. Drubelle Stephenson, Ph.B., M.S.

SCHOOL BOARD

"The men behind the scenes"—while we rarely see these men, they are essential to the efficient operation of our school system. The School Board consists of three members chosen for a term of three years by our City Council. This is the group which makes the ultimate decisions pertaining to the employing of our teachers, administrators, and other persons in our school system, as well as maintenance of the school and purchasing for the school system.

Mrs. Beverly Otterman (seated) and Miss Mina Baker.

CLERICAL ASSISTANTS

Superintendent's Office

The record of each student, teacher, and employee of the entire school system is kept in the superintendent's office. All accounts of expenditures and business of the schools are efficiently handled by the secretaries in Mr. Christian's office: Miss Hazel Shahan, Secretary to the Board, and her assistant, Miss Virginia Phillips.

Principal's Office

"We're in a hurry—Mr. Neuman is so busy, now who can help us." In Lebanon High School this is no problem. We have Mrs. Beverly Otterman and Miss Mina Baker to assist us in cases like this. They are Mr. Neuman's secretaries, as well as Beverly being the school treasurer. These girls certainly do an excellent job helping keep our school running efficiently.

"Spacey" mingles with the Students

As the time draws near the very halls appear to draw back in mortal fear. It would seem for such an ominous silence a momentous occurrence is about to be witnessed. From the end of the hall the piercing plaintive note of a single bell sounds. It seems the great moment has arrived. From a myriad of doorways pours an avalanche of students. What is this phenomenon, merely the hourly occurrence of changing classes. Each year new faces must be learned to replace the ones of those who have graduated. In some schools this would become an endless ordeal, but in the friendly atmosphere of L.H.S. it is a pleasant task.

Our students aren't all geniuses, we do have a fair share though, and we don't all see alike; yet at L. H. S. we work and play together in the best possible relationships.

Don't get us wrong, everything isn't made easy for us; we don't want it that way. We are proud of our school and our students.

Coming up on the following pages are the ones who make or break Lebanon High School—our classmates.

"Spacey" meets the Elite

SENIOR COUNCIL

The Senior Council is composed of the class officers, five other elected members, and the sponsor. Their first duty is to make plans and choose committees for the Senior Dinner Party. Later in the year, they prepare for the traditional and long awaited Class Night, which is held the latter part of May. Their final function is to organize our graduation ceremonies, Baccalaureate and Commencement.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

We entered high school the fall of '50 as "green freshmen." Although we joined a few clubs and were thrilled to get to go to the mixers after the ball games for the first time, most of our time during our first two years was spent getting acquainted with the teachers and becoming accustomed to high school life, waiting for the day we would become the upper classmen.

During our Junior year, the Candy-Coke Committee worked hard at all the basketball games to make money for the big Junior event of the year, the Junior-Senior Prom. Since '53 was Coronation year we very appropriately had a "Coronation Ball." Mina Edwards reigned as our queen upon a throne in Westminster Abbey with six attendants. Everyone spent a wonderful evening dancing to the music of the Butler Collegians.

At last we were Seniors the fall of '53. We had elected for president of our class, George Morton; vice-president, Charles Butner; and secretary-treasurer, Anne Wiseheart. Mrs. Lila Bowman was our capable sponsor. Like every other Senior year, it was a sentimental year. We went to football games, basketball games, mixers, pep sessions, and convocations for the last time as students of L.H.S. To make our year even more outstanding, we elected a Junior Rotarian each month. We voted the last week of the month on a Senior boy, based on character and scholarship, to attend a Rotary dinner. Five of our Senior boys were the first to have this honor.

One of the big formal events of the year was our Senior Dinner Party at the Ulen Country Club, October 14. Our theme "Harvest Daze," was carried out in the clever decorations and the entertainment. The Candelabrum Committee gave their very impressive, traditional ceremony which will always be remembered by the Seniors.

All too soon our Senior year came to a close with our final activities—Class Night, Baccalaureate, and Commencement. Now as graduates we are ready to face the future and to seek our goals.

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

In the spring of '53, the Class of '55 met for the first time to elect their leaders for the coming school year. The officers elected were Bob King, president; J Coahran, vice-president; and Joyce Bird, secretary-treasurer. Their able sponsor this year was Miss Patricia O'Day.

As in the past, the Junior Candy-Coke Committee sold concessions at the basketball games to make the money for the Prom and for future activities in their senior year.

The Prom, held at the Lebanon Armory on April 23, was a gala affair, honoring the graduating Seniors.

As upperclassmen they proved to be a great success and will carry on as the leaders in Lebanon High School next year. We, the Class of '54, wish you all the happiness, fun, and prosperity possible in your senior year at L. H. S.

Students pause during the busy day to study organizations' notices and announcements

"Spacey" stares in avid fascination at the bulletin board

When someone talks of activities at L. H. S. they mean Activities. Our clubs and societies make up an important part of our social growth while we are in school. Not only do our organizations offer us the opportunity to engage in wholesome fun with our classmates, but also render the important function of learning to work with other people toward a definite objective. L.H.S.'s organizations are not social cliques just for a few of the "elite." Some clubs have open membership, while others necessitate certain requirements. Any student by his own diligence and application can achieve the necessary essentials.

Some of our clubs are recognized statewide for their attainment of high quality in their own personal field of endeavor.

Another important factor which places our organizations on a high standard is the congenial cooperation between the club members and their faculty advisors.

As we have stated before and will state again, we're proud, and justifiably so, of our organizations at L.H.S.

CEDARS STAFF

Comes the long awaited day—our annual is shown to the school for the first time. On that day in May there is no prouder group than your CEDARS staff.

To us it represents a year of diligent, exacting work; long hours of patient doing and redoing; and even sometimes sheer mental agony. Even though it was work, not one of us would trade the wonderful experiences and the feeling of self-achievement we've derived from being on the staff. It is our sincere hope that this book meets your expectations and will leave you with pleasant memories.

Each spring the Junior Class elects the Co-Editors and the Business Manager and these staff members select the remainder of the staff.

The Staff would like to take this opportunity to express our heartfelt gratitude to those who have helped make this book what it is. First and foremost to our sponsor, Mrs. Doris Langjahr, whose wonderful assistance cannot be expressed in words; also to our photographers, Mrs. Leona Lobraico and Mr. Harold Harvey; to our engravers, The Indianapolis Engraving Company; and to our printers, Goble Printers of Greenfield, we extend our sincere thanks.

Top row: Mickey Parr, Mary Jo Blubaugh, Janet Powell, Phyllis Swinford, Peggy Hiland, Anita Rodgers, Sarah Jo Eller, Carolyn Lutes, Susan Straughan, Ruth Cunningham, Eleanor Murphy, Sondra Staton, Eugenia Crisswell, Nina Beth Whitehead, and C. O. Weddle.

Second row: Donald Owens, Arlene Rodgers, JoAnn Phelps, Mrs. Drubelle Stephenson, Joanna Corbly, Ruth Ann Brindle, and Frank Coahran.

Third row: Jerry Tanselle and Jim Heckman.

SENIOR NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Members of this organization are chosen for their outstanding character, scholarship, leadership, and service. To be admitted to the society is one of the most distinguished honors a high school student can achieve. The membership is limited to 15% of the graduating class, 10% being chosen the junior year and 5% the senior year by a vote of the faculty. The society maintains the Honor Desk, the function of which is to sell school supplies and furnish information. Profits from the Honor Desk are used by the society in their generous donations to school projects. Officers are John Dicks, president; Nancy Morton, vice-president; Jane McDonald, secretary-treasurer, and Miss Lillian Witt, faculty advisor.

JUNIOR NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The Junior Honor Society represents the same ideals to the Junior High as the Senior Honor Society does to the upperclassmen. The requirements for admission are almost identical, as their members are chosen during their eighth or ninth grade year. The society sells supplies and book covers, especially designed for Lebanon High School, in the Junior High Office; sponsors the Junior High Spelling Contest; and gives assistance to fellow students through their tutoring service.

Their officers this year are Jim Heckman, president; Frank Coahran, vice-president; Joanna Corbly, secretary-treasurer; and their faculty sponsor is Mrs. Drubelle Stephenson.

THESPIAN SOCIETY

These are the John Barrymores and Helen Hayeses of tomorrow. Members are admitted on a point basis of so many hours of participation in school dramatics. Each spring the Thespians present a star-studded production for the enjoyment of the Lebanon public. This year, being no exception, they are presenting "Black Wings," which promises to be as good, or better, than past productions.

The club is affiliated with the National Dramatics Society.

Officers are Chell Fogle, president; George Morton, vice-president; Rosalyn Plott, secretary-treasurer; and Mr. John Roth, sponsor.

HI-Y

Composing the Hi-Y are Junior and Senior boys who believe in the club's standards: Clean Speech, Clean Sports, and Clean Living. As a junior counterpart of the Y.M.C.A. it is mainly a service club for the school. Their main duty is to hold ropes at the basketball games. They sent three of their officers to the State Conference for Older Boys at Kokomo this year. The organization, along with the Sunshine Society, sponsors the Courtesy-Character award, initiated in 1938 by Howard Barnett.

The club's officers are John Dicks, president; Jon Myers, vice-president; Bob Peabody, secretary; Tom Walker, treasurer; Terry Darnell, sergeant-at-arms; Raymon Goff, guide; Dick Korteling, chaplain; and their sponsor, Mr. Glen Neeves.

JUNIOR SCIENCE CLUB

The "Junior Explorers of Science," as these future scientists are known, are students from any grade who are interested in science. During the year they have speakers and individual and committee projects to further their interest in science. The club is a member of the Science Clubs of America, which sponsors the National Talent Search Contest.

The officers of the club are C. O. Weddle, president; Jack McCutchan, vice-president; Etta Lou DeMoss, secretary, and Barry Lindley, treasurer. Their co-sponsors are Miss Helen Reed and Mr. Will Davies.

COMMERCIAL CLUB

In this group of aspiring commercial students are our future clerks, C.P.A.'s, stenographers, and business heads. Their able sponsors, Miss June Anderson and Mrs. Doris Langjahr, instruct them in their bookkeeping, stenography, and typewriting courses. The club obtains guest speakers from the business world to stimulate interest. Each year on Honor Day the club presents awards to the outstanding commercial students.

The club this year chose as their governing heads, Rosalyn Plott, president; Pauline Bregg, vice-president; Beverly Myers, secretary; and Virginia DeCroes, treasurer.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

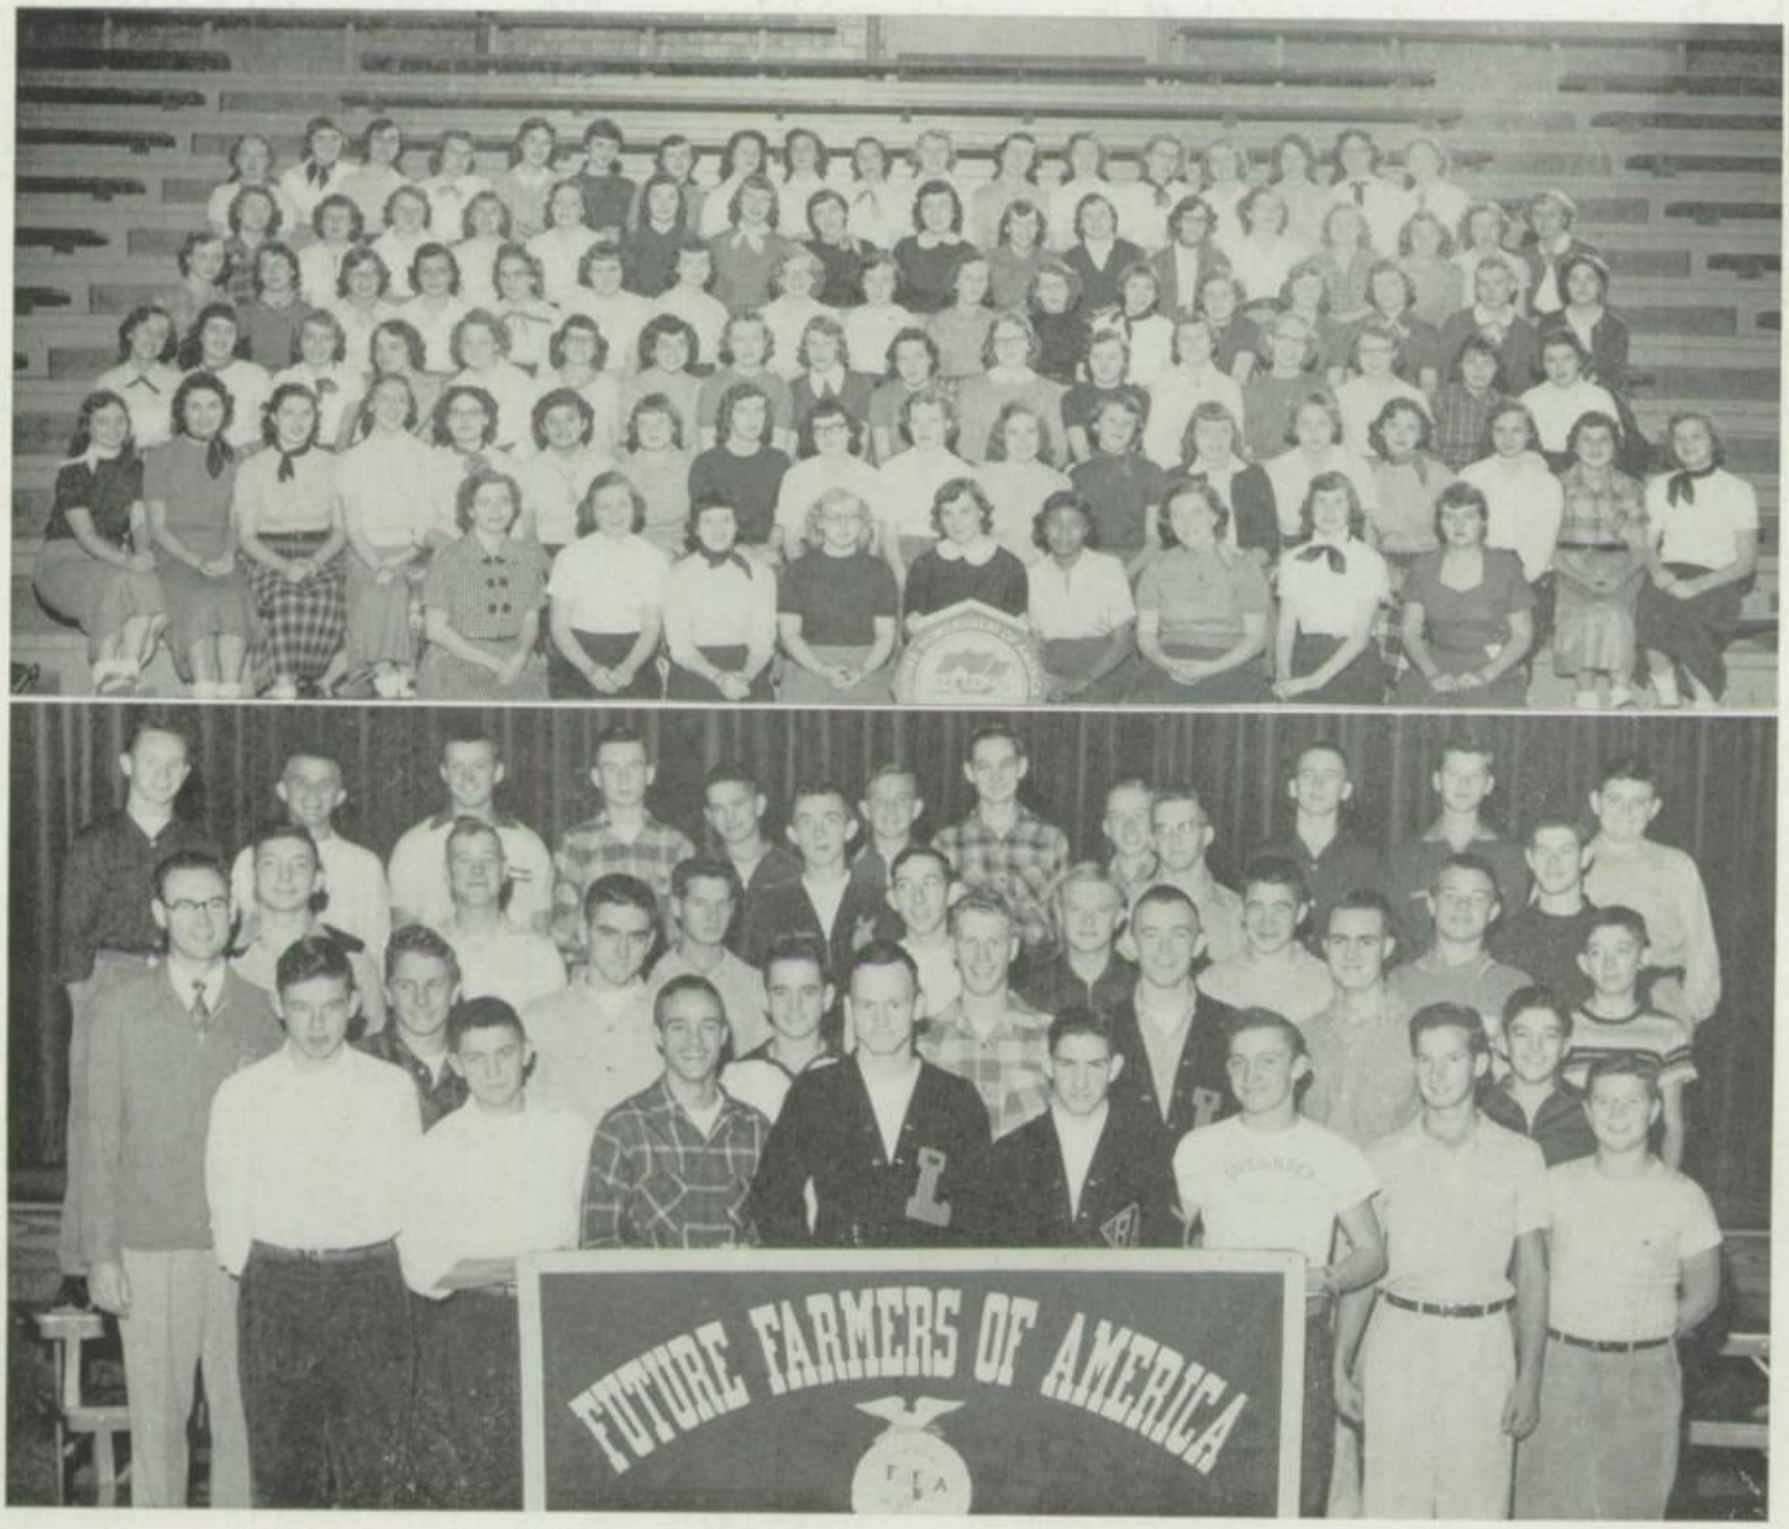
Under the co-sponsorship of Miss Elizabeth Spacht and Miss Patricia O'Day, these girls prepare themselves as the homemakers of tomorrow. The local chapter is a member of the national organization of F.H.A. For active participation in chapter functions the girls receive the degrees of Junior Homemaker and Chapter Homemaker. Aside from their regular meetings their activities include rummage sales to raise money for presentation of their awards and the red roses they present to the teachers each year.

This year's officers are, Frances Hiland, president; Julia Booth, vice-president; and Frances Bregg, secretary-treasurer.

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

The Future Farmers of America consists of boys from the Vocational Agriculture class and is under the sponsorship of Mr. Lowell Hunter. The boys are learning practical application of scientific methods while developing co-operation and farm management. They all have projects in crops or animals and earn the following awards according to their achievement: Green Hand, Chapter Farmer, and American Farmer. The local chapter received the distinction of electing Tom Walker as vice-president of District Five.

Their officers are George Morton, president; Bob King, vice-president; Lowell Shelbourne, secretary; and Devon Miller, treasurer.



SENIOR SUNSHINE COUNCIL

The Senior Sunshine Council is the executive body of the Sunshine Society and consists of the officers, sponsors, and the committee chairmen. The club is noted for the worthy services it renders to the school and community. Some of their services were making scrapbooks for Riley Hospital, distributing Christmas baskets, and, as usual, making themselves generally helpful around the school. The society was doubly honored this year by having the privilege of being hostess to the District I Convention and having a member of the community, Mrs. Claude Potts, elected State Dean.

Their officers are Nancy Morton, president; Jane Wiseheart, vice-president; Claudette Cragun, secretary; and Willa Sue Small, treasurer; with Miss Mary Ann Tauer, Mrs. Pauline Sumpter, Miss Jeanne Meyers, and Miss Eileen Beckett as sponsors.

SUNBEAM COUNCIL

The Sunbeams serve the school similarly to the Sunshine Society and is composed of seventh, eighth, and ninth grade girls. The Sunbeam Council consists of the officers, sponsors, and two girls from each of the three classes. During the year they present programs, the talent being from their own organization. They were co-hostesses with the Sunshine Society to the District I Convention. Again this year, as in the past, the Sunbeams decorated the Christmas tree in the Junior High Building. The officers this year are Joanna Corbly, president; Deborah Smith, vice-president; and Linda Gibbs, secretary-treasurer. The sponsors are Miss Ruth Brookshire, Miss Catherine Buck, Miss Jean Davis, and Miss Irmadene Garrison.

L. to R.: Dick Korteling, Nancy Morton, Roberta Bell, Jane McDonald, and John Dicks.

BOYS' AND GIRLS' STATE REPRESENTATIVES

The Boys' and Girls' State Representatives are elected in the spring of their junior year by the Junior Class. They attend summer sessions, which are set up as model governments; the girls at Bloomington, and the boys at Indianapolis. The boys are sponsored by the American Legion while the girls have three sponsors, the American Legion Auxiliary, Kappa Kappa Kappa, and Psi Iota Xi. At the sessions they learn the workings of our state government. At their respective sessions Jane was elected a Senator, and Dick served as a City Councilman, while John was busy as a State Representative.

D.A.R. GOOD CITIZEN

This award is bestowed upon a senior girl who is outstanding in leadership, service, character, and citizenship. From the Senior Class Nancy Morton was chosen the D.A.R. Good Citizen of 1954. Nancy was elected by the faculty from the three girls chosen by the Senior Class during the first semester.

CANDELABRUM COMMITTEE

In 1929 a new ceremony was inaugurated by Miss Lydia Bell, and since then it has become a tradition at every formal gathering of the Senior Class. The ceremony consists of lighting seven tapers representing the seven cardinal principles of secondary education: ethical character, worthy use of leisure time, health, worthy home membership, command of the fundamental processse, vocation, and citizenship. The committee is composed of the Sen'or Class officers and five seniors elected by the class. Being on the Candelabrum Committee is one of the highest distinctions a Senior can achieve.

L. to R.: G. Morton, N. Morton, A. Wiseheart, C. Butner, D. Korteling, A. Kincaid, M. M. Parr, and M. Edmonds.

CANDY-COKE COMMITTEE

The hucksters at the basketball games aren't the frantic refugees they may seem—they are the boys and girls of the Candy-Coke Committee. Each fall the Junior Class selects twelve boys and twelve girls to sell candy, gum, and soft drinks at the games. Profits from their efforts go to pay for the Junior Prom, a social highlight of the year. This year's colerful blue and gray outfits are easy to spot as the vendors hurry frantically about their duties.

SPANISH CLUB

"La Alianza Hispancia" as the Spanish Club is known, is devoted to the promotion of Spanish speaking countries and their people. The year's activities included formal and informal initiations, outside speakers, filmstrips, and student panels. At Christmas time the club goes caroling in the halls, singing the carols in Spanish. A gala climax to the year's festivities is the Spanish fiesta sponsored by the club.

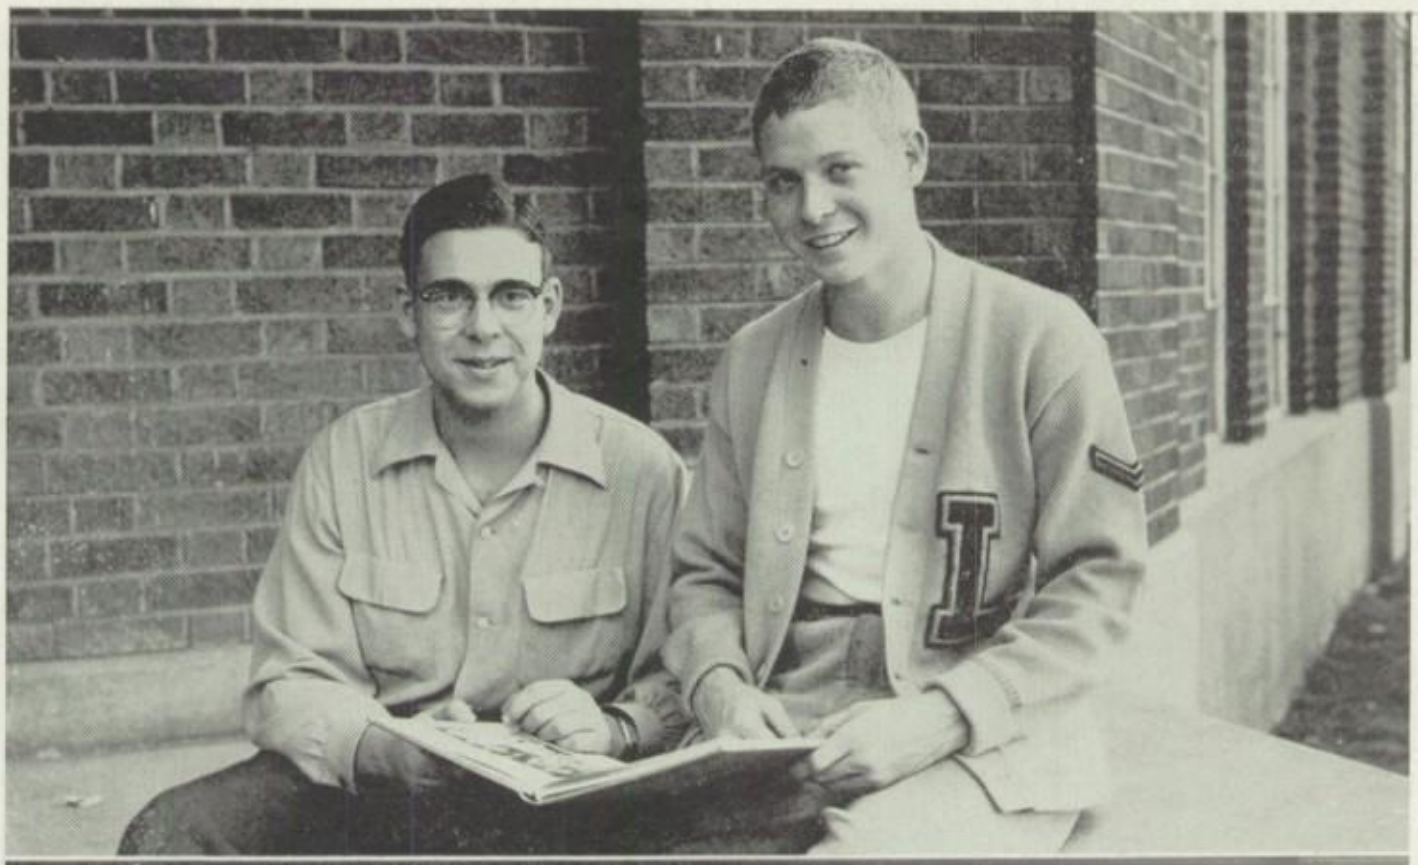
LATIN CLUB

"Hail Caesar" is the hue and cry of our Latin students. The club is a living example that Rome isn't dead. The Roman Banquet each spring, at which the seniors are the honored guests, is based upon Roman history, complete with costumes and customs. During the year the club has had guest speakers and student programs for their monthly meetings, which are conducted in the manner of the ancient Roman City States.

The year's officers consist of Bill Bales, 1st consul; Larry Lewallen, 2nd consul; Jo Ann Phelps, quaestor; and Eleanor Murphy, aedile; with Mrs. Pauline Sumpter as sponsor.



PHYSICS AND CHEMISTRY LAB ASSISTANTS

The preparation of chemical compounds and solutions calls for exacting care and precision. These boys are the ones who prepare the various mixtures and assist Mr. Will Davies. They are the caretakers of the storeroom and lab and give help to the students when needed. The lab assistants are chosen each year from the preceding year's chemistry class for their reliability and knowledge of chemistry. The lab assistants this year are David Wainscott and Jon Myers.

STUDENT OPERATORS

These boys under the tutorage of their co-sponsors, Miss Ruth McLaughlin and Mr. Will Davies, render an important service by operating the movie projector, the tape recorder, and public address system. To become a student operator one must be a Sophomore, Junior, or Senior, and must maintain passing grades in all subjects and have at least a "C" average in citizenship.

This year's officers are Ronald Love, president; Dean Board, vice-president; and Kenneth Mitchell, secretary-treasurer.

SENIOR HIGH OFFICE ASSISTANTS

These girls perform innumerable chores in the office to maintain top efficiency. Among their duties are answering the phone, taking messages, making out the absence list and announcements. They are chosen each year from the typing classes for their outstanding ability to meet the public and do office work. They are supervised by the office secretaries, Mrs. Beverly Otterman and Miss Mina Baker.

L. to R., Standing: Jane McDonald, Mrs. Beverly Otterman , Marcia Murphy, Shirley Campbell, Kay Stewart, Janet Nelson, Anne Wiseheart, Joann Cozzy, Miss Mina Baker, Mary Margaret Parr, and Phyllis Gwaltney.
Seated: Willa Sue Small, Marcia Peabody, Rosalyn Plott. Mina Edmonds. Chell Fogle, and Norma Greene.

L. to R., Back row: Bailey Bales, Nancy McKinney, Janet Baker, Sharon Biggerstaff, and Linda Mundell.

JUNIOR HIGH OFFICE ASSISTANTS

The Junior High assistants execute the same duties as the Senior High office assistants and are chosen for the same qualities. They are Mrs. Drubelle Stephenson's right-hand girls and are under her supervision.

LIBRARY ASSISTANTS

These are the indispensable assistants which keep track of lost and overdue books, help us find our research books, and keep the volumes in good condition. They assist Miss Ruth McLaughlin in the Junior and Senior libraries. It's no easy task to keep the books in their proper niches, but these boys and girls are always performing their duties efficiently.

LIBRARY CLUB

Our helpful librarians, too often taken for granted, have an active organization which renders an important service to the school by keeping the library shipshape. With money raised by their project, they buy books for the school library and assist Miss Ruth McLaughlin in selecting additional books for the school. To be eligible one must either have been a library assistant for at least a year or have worked in the Public Library.

Their officers are: Frances Bregg, president; Catherine DeMougin, vice-president; Beverly Myers, secretary; and Peggy Phillips, treasurer. Miss McLaughlin is their sponsor.

Seated: Jon Myers, Dick Korteling, Joe Kashner, Dick Hall, and Anne Weddle.

BOOSTERS

Service is the byword of the Boosters. Whether it's an errand to be run or a chore to do, the Booster Club members are always on hand ready and willing. They help at the sale of basketball tickets and the games themselves. At school functions they assist in decorating and general arrangements. Each spring ten candidates are chosen from the Sophomore Class by the club, they are then voted on by the faculty who selects the five boys to become Boosters.

Their officers are Alan Kincaid, president; George Morton, vice-president; and John Dicks, secretary-treasurer. Their faculty sponsor is Mr. William Heath.

JUNIOR HISTORICAL SOCIETY BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Lebanon Chapter of the Indiana Junior Historical Society is one of the largest and most active chapters in the state. The club had a distinctive honor bestowed upon them this year by having their local president, Jon Myers, elected state president of the society. The club's traditional Box Supper Social has drawn state-wide recognition and is the society's main money-making activity. The club has four night meetings, besides their monthly business sessions, and takes a trip each spring to places of historical interest. This year's governing body consists of Jon Myers, president; Dick Hall, vice-president; Pauline Bregg, secretary; Anne Weddle, treasurer; with Gene Fine, Dick Korteling, and Joe Kashner as directors. Their co-sponsors are Miss Lillian Witt and Mr. Glen Neeves.

"L" CLUB

The proud possessors of athletic letters from our sports: football, basketball, baseball, track, and golf, compose the members of the club. The players and managers who have won the letters assure respect for them by maintaining high standards of play and sportsmanship. The "L Clubbers" do chores pertaining to athletic functions when the opportunity arises.

The officers are Alan Kincaid, president; Ray Shaw, vice-president; Larry Riggins, secretary-treasurer, with Bob Igney and Al Crawford as sponsors.

GAA

Sponsored by Miss LaRetha Leyman, the Girls' Athletic Association is an organization offered to Lebanon High School girls for the better use of leisure time and beneficial physical activity. The girls compete among themselves and other schools in team and individual sports and learn the value of cooperation and sportsmanship. Awards are given in the spring to those who have qualified for them. The club's administrative body is Marcia Peabody, president; Dixie Oehler, vice-president; Eleanor Murphy, secretary, and Bonnie Hayden, treasurer.

Standing: Mr. Lester DeBard, Roberta Bell, Beverly Bryant, Margaret Batty, Carroll Dickerson, and Etta Lou DeMoss.

ORCHESTRA

The orchestra, relatively a new organization, has already made its place among our musical organizations. Under the direction of Mr. Lester DeBard it performs at our formal occasions such as Thanksgiving Vespers and the Christmas Program.

BAND

Representing our school just as our athletes do, is our band. Each year it seems to sound better and is called upon for more activities. The band plays for football and basketball games, marches in parades, and performs for civic functions as well as school activities. They also present concerts and school convocations. Members compete in state music contests.

The intricate routines and dazzling exhibitions of baton twirling are an added fea:ure which makes our band outstanding. These girls are the hard-working, highsteppers who practice long hours in order to bring us a few minutes of enjoyable entertainment. Without them no parade would be complete.

L. to R.: Myrna Huffman, Karen Sargent, Jeannette Dixon, Beverly Bryant, Janet Baker, and Marcia Davis.

HIGH SCHOOL GLEE CLUB

The Glee Club consists of students interested in vocal music and its advancements. Although the glee club has not been as active this year as in the past, it is building for the future, and did send some of its members to the Choral Festival. They are under the leadership of our new vocal instructor, Miss Jeanne Meyers.

An innovation this year was the addition of a new singing group, the Madrigal, which specializes in folk songs and ballads. The Madrigal group is pictured as the front row of the Concert Choir.

CONCERT CHOIR

One of L.H.S.'s outstanding musical groups is undoubtedly the concert choir, composed of the finest voices in school, selected each fall in individual tryouts. Under the direction of Miss Jeanne Meyers, the choir is kept busy during the year singing for formal school functions and outside organizations. This year the concert choir presented a Christmas concert for the townspeople and staged an orignal musical, "Haymakers' Holiday." Once again the choir participated in the District Choral Festival. The concert choir has always been an outstanding representative of our school and this year upheld its fine reputation.

L. to R.: Mrs. Zora Hiland, Mrs. Delores Hiland, and Mrs. Lois Bratton.

L. to R.: Mr. William Hudson, Mr. Alva Hudson, and Mr. William "Slim" Watson.

COOKS

These women are the "soul savers" who prepare our sustenance in the school cafeteria. Their work is sometimes lightly regarded but their absence would soon bring a howl of discontent from the students. We greatly appreciate their tireless labors to keep the lunchroom operating smoothly.

CUSTODIANS

Patience and persistency, that describes our custodians. Each day they must plow through a mountain of debris that we leave. Their job around the school is a never ending one. We're proud of the way Lebanon High School looks and we extend our hearty thanks to the men who keep it that way—Bill, Slim, and Alva.

L. to R.: Baseball, Ray Shaw; football, Gene Fine and Wayne Douney; track, Alan Kincaid; basketball, Bob Harshman; golf, Jack Reed; and basketball, Bob Peabody.

"Spacey" is amazed at the accomplishments of L. H. S. athletes

At one time not so many years ago Lebanon High School was known as a "power" and was feared and respected by any opponent which they might encounter.

Since Lebanon was dropped from the North Central Conference in 1932 for discontinuing a major sport (football), we have been struggling to regain the standing which we once possessed in athletics. The resumption of football, track, and golf has made it possible for Lebanon to present itself as a competitor for a position in the North Central Conference. Gradual, but constant improvement in all fields of athletics induces Tiger fans to believe that some day Lebanon High School might again take its rightful place in athletics. The squads of '53 and '54 and their backers have taken a step higher on the ladder leading to that level of accomplishment, which is only expected of a school such as L. H. S.

ATHLETIC BOARD OF CONTROL

This governing body is made up of seven students and eight faculty members. The students consist of a president, a vice-president, a secretary, two boy representatives, and two girl representatives. In that respective order they are Gene Fine, Alan Kincaid, Chell Fogle, Ray Shaw, Phil Sterling, Anne Weddle, and Sally Kern. These students were elected early in the fall by a vote of all the students in the Junior and Senior High School. This election was held in the gymnasium in the form of an all school convocation. This board is really just a small executive branch of the Indiana High School Athletic Association. Our Athletic Board is the judge and police force of the IHSAA. The "Board" enforces all rules pertaining to L.H.S. athletics. Two chief duties of the Athletic Board of Control are to decide the price of tickets to all athletic contests in which Lebanon High School participates and to act upon the recommendations by the coaches for the awarding of "L" sweaters.

CHEER LEADERS

There is very much hard work and very little glory connected to the job of leading yells. However, Lebanon High School has always had a more than satisfactory turn-out for these positions. This year Rosalyn Plott, Jane Wiseheart, and Dick Ford can be sure that every last student in Lebanon High School is proud to have had such outstanding and hard-working cheerleaders.

MANAGERS

Work! Work! Work! "Tighten my cleats!" . . . "Put up the nets!" . . . "Tape this bat!" . . . "Where is the shot put?" . . . The managers are the work horses of athletics. They are a go-between from the player to the coach. They serve as leaning posts for the coaches. Their toils are many . . . Certainly they wear an "L" and they can wear it proudly.

VARSITY FOOTBALL

Above are the boys that comprised Lebanon High School's football team which this year had the best season record since Coach Crawford took the wheel in the fall of 1950.

In addition to this fine record the squad and its backers take pride in the recognition which two "Tiger" boys, J. Coahran and Gene Fine, received. They were awarded honorable mention on the Indianapolis Times ALL-STATE football team.

JUNIOR VARSITY FOOTBALL

Jim Heckman with a total of 48 points was leading scorer for the Junior Varsity. Although the season record was two victories against four setbacks, this group of boys played some mighty promising football.

Coach Keith Kincaid had 35 boys August 15 and kept all of them on the squad. Kincaid had to spend much time on fundamentals which limited the amount of time he could spend on improving or perfecting any group of eleven boys.

FOOTBALL ACTION PICTURES

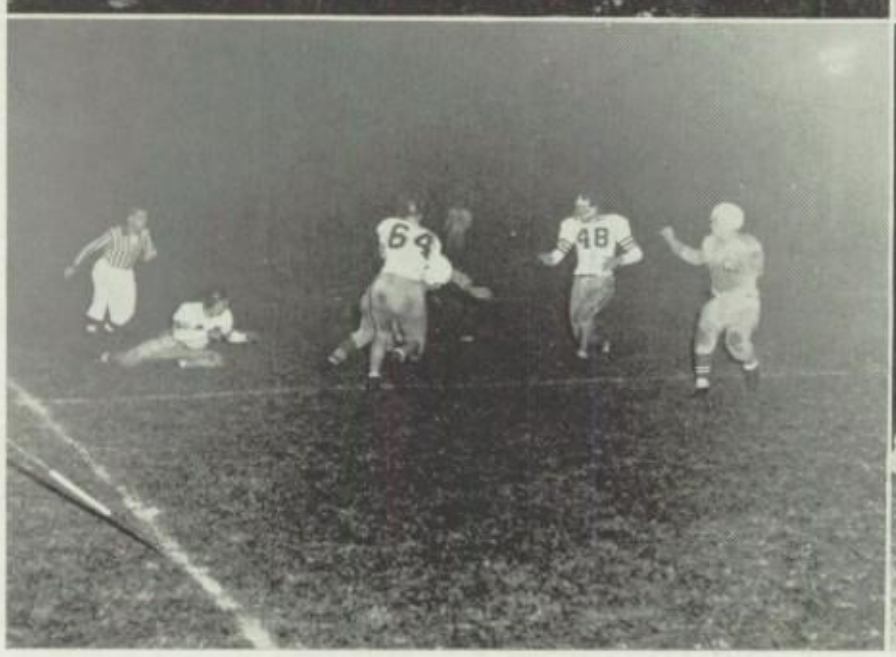
The "Tigers" in action . . . Many of this year's Seniors have been waiting four years to meet the Frankfort "Hot Dogs." The peak of this season came when Lebanon defeated Frankfort . . . 13 to 7 in one of the most exciting games of the year.

Upper left: "Mighty happy fans" . . . Paul Wolfe has just scored his precious TD shortly before the end of the half of the Frankfort game.

Upper right: This is only one of the many times Al Kincaid scampered around end for large gains. He made 24 yards on this one.

Lower left: Lebanon's "pass defense" was tops this game, as usual. Here Collier, Coahran, and Lambert close in on an opponent.

Lower right: Collier and Coahran are about to stack up Dupler of Frankfort. Fine, eluding a blocker, comes up for security.



L.H.S. GRIDMEN

Gene Fine with six TD's captured scoring honors for the "Tigers." Junior end J Coahran, who had five TD's was constantly pushing Fine throughout the season. Other scorers were Alan Kincaid, Duane Collier, Joe Kashner, Jack Breedlove, Paul Wolfe, and Sophomore quarterback, Larry Lewallen, who kicked Lebanon's conversions.

Coach Al Crawford had his "bench" loaded with adequate and anxious substitutes this year. This fact solved the problem of replacing a "regular" because of an injury but affronted Crawford with the new, and possibly more difficult problem, of deciding which boy or boys to start each game. Five letter winners and many experienced players were stationed on the sidelines each game. Fifteen of these boys graduate and twenty-two are returning. Lebanon fans can expect plenty of exciting football on the Tiger Gridiron next year!!! Good luck!

GOLF

Last season Lebanon High School's golf team defeated West Lafayette's team 8 to 7 and defeated Noblesville's team 12½ to 2½ on the Ulen Country Club course. These two victories against four defeats, all of which were close, are definite proof that golf at L. H. S. is improving.

All of last year's team will be returning this spring and Coach Crawford can look forward to the prospects of a better season.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

The "Tiger" basketball team of this season got off to a slow start by winning only three of its first twelve games. But the thirteenth game of the season, against Shortridge of Indianapolis, proved to be the turning point. The "Tigers" defeated this foe 59 to 44 and went on to stage a startling comeback by winning nine of its next eleven games.

Four of these victories came as the result of Lebanon winning the Sectional. The scores indicate that Lebanon was decisively the victor. However, the "Tigers" were "cold" in the early part of each game and the scores were close until the start of each second half.

Of the two losses, one was by one point in an overtime tilt against Sheridan in regular season play. The other was to Jeff of Lafayette 55 to 52 in the Regional Tourney.

This was Coach Bob Igney's first year at Lebanon and he came up with a team of which every Lebanon High School basketball fan was proud.

Lots of loose balls. A typical fact of any Hoosier basketball game, especially "Tiger" basketball! In the above pictures the Lebanon Varsity is having their share of getting control of loose balls. This was true all season long, but it wasn't until the latter part of the season that the "Tigers" were able to capitalize on this advantage.

CUBS

The Cubs won 4 games and lost 13. Chuck Dulhanty with 89 points ended the season as high scorer. Lamm and Lewallen were moved up to the varsity after playing only 8 Cub games, and both were at that time keeping pace with Dulhanty. Per man the Cub team is taller than the varsity, but they are not yet as well developed. Thus after a summer of maturing, these boys are sure to increase the prospects of the '54 and '55 basketball season.

BASEBALL

Coach "Doc" Heath, who had only one Senior veteran, Ross Pauly, and one Junior veteran, Ray Shaw, saw his inexperienced squad learn baseball the hard way! Seven boys earned their baseball sweaters last spring and are returning this year to seek revenge for the discouraging results of the previous season. Although two of the games were lost by wide margins, a victory over Crawfordsville by 14 to 2, offset the defeats so much that Lebanon lost each game by an average of only one run.

TRACK 1953

Lebanon High School's track team has been without a track since the sport was resumed in the late '40's. This has been a great hindrance to the Tiger trackmen. They have been practicing at the city park where it is impossible for sprinters and distance runners to learn to pace themselves correctly. The field men of the team have a pit in which to practice but it is far from regulation; however, Lebanon has made most of its points in the field events.

There is an unconditioned track around the football field now and perhaps the team will be able to use it this year. If so, Lebanon is sure to improve its record.

1953 TRACK RECORD

Lebanon placed 3rd in a three way meet with N'ville and Alexandria.
Lebanon placed 3rd in a three way meet with W. Lafayette and Fowler.
Lebanon placed 2nd with 55 5/6 points to Charlton's 73 1/6.
Lebanon placed 2nd in a three way meet with C'ville and Greencastle.
Lebanon placed 5th in the N'ville Relays. There were 6 schools participating.

In the above pictures one only sees a small percent of the girls who are active in the athletics that are represented, and it is not difficult to observe how well these girls are trained.

GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

Not to be outdone by the boys, is our active Girls' Athletic Association, playing individual and team competitive sports between themselves and other schools. Their activities include volleyball, basketball, badminton, modern dancing, and tumbling.

Besides providing wholesome exercise and teaching cooperation, the G.A.A. furnishes a better use for leisure time. Awards are presented each spring on Honor Day, in the form of letters and chevrons, to those girls meeting the necessary requirements.

"Spacey," a creature from space, bids L. H. S. a fond farewell . .

Dear Dean —

Thats not exactly the way I want to start this but it will have to do since most people will be reading this.

I haven't known you very well until this year. I am glad that we have had third hour library together. We have gotten very well acquainted. And I have enjoyed every minute of it. We have both done alot of teasing but it was all in fun. I do want to say one thing and that is: I'm sorry for the three times I stood you up. I really wish now that I had gone with you when I had all those chances. But the one night that I was with you I'll always remember. It was wonderful! Now I know why Joan loves you. I can't blame her at all.

I could write alot more to you, Dean, but I know that other people will read this so I'll just say the usual things. You are really a wonderful guy. Very good-looking and very nice. I'll admit you have made me pretty mad sometimes but those times are forgotten as far as I'm concerned. I know I have made you very mad at me also. But I hope you have gotten over that. maybe we can see each other this summer at the swimming pool. We have had a lot of fun together all through this year and I really hope we can still have fun in the following years to come.

you know we should really start a Bales, Barrett, Bregg & Board club with Mr. Coombs as president. ha! ha!

I hope you will succeed in everything you attempt to do, dear. Good luck always to a guy that I could like very much.

Love ya!

Lois Bissette

Dear Dear,

It's been almost 5 years that I've known you and I've never regretted it. Remember that rose stationery I used to write on? Thanks so much for being such a swell classmate and friend. You're one grand guy and I wish you the best of luck always.

always,
Mona Edwards.

Dear:
I hope you have the best of luck at every endeavor. Keep working on your arm.

Dear —
Best of luck to the neatest looking guy in school.

We have been friends since grade school and once even more than friends.

I hope you get the best of everything

Dear -
I've really enjoyed singing with you in our quartet. I hope we can all "get together" again, for we've had so wonderful time.
Good Luck always

Hi Dear,
I sure have had fun living with you in Library This Year. Sincerely,
I have completely changed my opinion of you (funny isn't it?). It's been a pleasure knowing you.
Good luck in future years.
Merry Xmas

Dear Dear —

Well we have come a long way this year. It has been a successful year at that. We had our disagreements but I think all in all things went pretty well. Its a darn shame that we couldn't hold the quartet together because it has been a lot of fun and also a wonderful experience. Maybe sometime in the future we can get together again.

Thanks for being a good friend Homer.
